

Bally 742A - (an EXTRAORDINARY find; this is a genuine, in-working-order, Grade 2, 25-cent "White Sides" - very few now are known to exist intact and in playing condition, it has been said that this particular machine was at Harrah's Las Vegas; truly a rare machine, only 12 of these machines were actually made)

Bally 742A - (exterior model/serial number plate; this is a "White Sides", 25-cent, Money Honey, number 819; there is a genuine Bally sticker above this plate)

Bally 742A Award Card - (these were lighted by an 8-inch fluorescent tube just below the marquee; this one belongs to a "White Sides", 25-cent Money Honey, this particular one is not a reproduction, it is genuine)

Bally 742A "White Sides, 25-cent Money Honey" (right side; the machine is NOT being kept in the garage; it is safe and sound inside its owner's home)

Bally 742A "White Sides, 25-cent Money Honey (left side; the machine is NOT being kept in the garage; it is safe and sound inside its owner's home)
